Link (EX): At 1st cleric level, the cleric forms a mental link with her divine animal companion. This power is similar to a wizard's empathic link with his familiar. Through the link, the cleric can sense her divine animal companion up to a range of 1 mile. The cleric and the companion are able to communicate basic information through the link (the amount of information and detail of the information determined by the animal's intelligence). Natural Armor Bonus (EX): At 4th cleric level ...

The Overview: Divine Hunter Paladins are naturally strong archers in Pathfinder, so it may come as a surprise that Paizo created the divine hunter archetype (Ultimate Combat) to make them even better at it. Surprising or not, the divine hunter is a solid choice if you're considering a paladin archer for your next character.

Shaman is another of Pathfinder's "Hybrid Classes" and it is a somewhat strange hybrid indeed. Combining the inclination towards debuffing and much of the flavor of the Witch with the spontaneous divine casting of the Oracle the Shaman both fits a specific niche and is capable of being a solid generalist.
